The Homes of Honolulu

Have been criticised most favorably by the many visitors to this mid-Pacific capi-tal and whose attention was attracted by This morning, David Haughs the manner in which the spacious grounds, which surround most of them, were attended to and kept in order. The beautiful lawns which the greater number of houses have are always subjects of favorable comment and a tangled mass of grass and weeds is sure to provoke scathing criticism of the slovenly character of the owner. It is wonderful what a revolution in the appearance of an illy-kept lawn may be ef-fected by the introdution of a lawn mower.

There are lawn-mowers and lawn-mow ers but you may obtain a Clipper and still have change out of a $5 bill.
